What a wonderful time of the year....!

Thank you to all the pupils of the Leys who have performed so well in all the productions this week!!! They have been so amazing. It was so lovely seeing such a great turnout of parents and carers, grandparents and friends, which made the events so special.

ELECTION 2019

THE LEYS pupils also took part in an election yesterday by voting for their candidate for our SCHOOL CABINET. The candidates all had to prepare and deliver an election speech, canvas the voters with posters and pledges. The yesterday all the Junior pupils placed their votes in the ballot boxes. Well done to Sophia who was voted CABINET LEADER and to WILLOW as DEPUTY LEADER, also to Lucy, Ethan, MacKenzie, Tom, Marie, Aimee, Olivia, Keiron, Lola, Evelyn, and Agir as CABINET members!!! I am just hoping they don't start putting pressure for a swimming pool and an ice cream maker!!!

Dear Diary,

A few days ago, I woke up feeling hungry but excited. I dragged my feet down the stairs and had my delicious breakfast. I got dressed and got ready to go out. I then jumped in the car with my family. I was super excited for ice skating. I went and put on my ice skates. I took my first step on the ice and it was so slippery! I slipped 6 times! Surprisingly, it was colder than I thought.

CLASS OF THE WEEK

Reception—Anderson and Zephaniah

This week Reception went on our annual trip to Willows Farm. The children had a great time visiting Santa, picking a present from his toy shop, feeding the animals, watching the festive 3D film and going on the festive tractor ride. The children all had an amazing time and were very well behaved.
